Summer Tune-Up for College Bound Teens

The summer is the most important time for out-of-school enrichment. Use this time to explore and develop interests. Start planning now!

College Insights Group will give you valuable insights on:

- Selecting the right program or activity for you.
- Finding programs that provide leadership skills.
- Taking college-level courses.
- Deciding between local and residential programs.
- Enriching volunteer positions and jobs.
- Creating a four-summer plan.
- Getting the most out of college visits.
